

Don't Look Back

From Genesis 19:12-26

By Greg Wright
Copyright (c) 2005, All Rights Reserved

1

Now Lot he was a right - eous man who lived in So - dom town. Its wick - ed - ness dis - turbed him ev - ery Lot sought the men who planned to take his daugh - ters as their wives. He begged them all to flee God's com - ing
Then fin - al - ly the an - gels told him they were out of time. Go get your wife and daughters, now, get
The an - gels stern - ly warned them that they must not turn a - round, And nei - ther should they flee in - to the O Lord you know our weak - ness, lest we fail when hea - ven's near, And turn back to the world we used to day. The an - gles came to tell him God would soon burn So - dom down. So he must take his wrath. He warned them they must leave this town if they would save their lives. But all they did was out! When poor Lot he - si - ta ted and could not make up his mind. The an - gels grabbed their plain. Lot's wife she dis - o - beyed them when she stopped to turn a - round, And then a sal - ty know. And, yet, You keep Your cho sen ones, You'll help us per - se - vere, And faith - ful - ly pre fam - ily far a - way. Don't look back, to the ci - ty of des - truc - tion.

8

15

look at him and laugh.
hands and led them out.
pil - lar she be - came.
serve us as we go.

22

Don't look back, to the life you had be - fore. Don't look back, for the wrath of God is 29

com - ing. You must flee to safe - ty in Zo - ar.