

There's a Call Going Out

By Ray Feliciano

1

There's a call that's go - ing out, to ev - ery - one with ears, to the
All the my - ste - ries a - bove, the pas - sing through death's doors, all re - For the time is O so near, the signs are all a - round, and the He's a gift from God a - bove, a trea - sure to be - hold. Turn a - As it was when time be - gan, it will be in the end. So that deaf and dumb and blind, or who - so - ev - er hears. Ac - cord - ing to your faith, it veiled in Scrip - ture's words, why suf - fer - ing a - bounds. We see the hand of God, in signs are loud and clear, they speak of Je - sus Christ. By ris - ing from the dead, He way from sin; be - lieve; be - come one of His fold. There soon will be a day, when you might un - der - stand, that's why this song was penned. Some - day I will a - rise; I shall be un - to you. If you lis - ten ver - y close - ly, this could be, the day that na - ture's my - ste - ries. See God's wrath on the ho - ri - zon, lis - ten please, for may - be proved that He is God. 'cause He lives I have sal - va - tion, hap - pi - ness, e - ter - nal - Je - sus will re - turn, and re - ceive us up to hea - ven, but the lost, the lost He'll hope that you will too. For I'm go - ing up to hea - ven, if you come, to Je - sus you be - lieve.

4

7

10

you'll be - lieve.
ly se - cured.
leave be - hind.
so can you.